The Christopher R. Volpe '95 Music Lab Blessing and Dedication

from the desk of Mrs. Schmuhl

On Saturday, October 15, Incarnate Word Academy celebrated the life of Christopher R. Volpe '95 with the blessing and dedication of the Christopher R. Volpe Music Lab. The Sisters of the Incarnate Word joined IWA staff and over 40 of Chris's family and friends to remember Chris and celebrate the influence that music had on his life and career.

We would like to say a special thank you to Chris's mom, Rose Volpe, and Chris's sister, Michelle Volpe Kohler '89, for their generosity. Additionally, thank you to Fr. Thomas Woost, Pastor of St. Brendan Parish, for his inspiring words and for blessing and dedicating the Music Lab .

CLASSROOM HIGHLIGHTS

from the desk of Mrs. Congelio

Father Matt Byrne, Pastor of St. John Bosco Parish in Parma Heights, spoke with our preparatory students today during religion class. The students prepared questions ahead of time that were presented to Father regarding the Catholic faith. Thank you, Father Matt, for helping our students grow in their faith!

TONY LEE NAMED IWA ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Incarnate Word Academy is pleased to announce that Tony Lee will be joining us as the new Athletic Director. Lee is the proud father of two daughters, Maria and Michelle, who graduated from IWA in 2009 and 2011, respectively. Lee's wife, Joanne, currently coaches the 8th grade girls' basketball team and is a volleyball and basketball official.

Lee has been actively involved in IWA athletics since 2004, and his experience includes coaching, site directing, and tournament director for the Sr. Eileen Basketball Classic. He is also the acting Vice President of St. Rocco Parish's Men's Group.

We are excited to welcome Tony Lee into this new role!

PTSU Santa Secret Shop: December 6 - 9

Dashing through the...OH NO! The Secret Santa Shop is right around the corner! If you're interested in being on the committee, our first meeting will be October 26 at 7 p.m. (location pending). We need a lot of hands to help the students shop, wrap gifts, sell raffle tickets, etc., and volunteer information will be sent out in mid-November.

The parent homeroom reps will be reaching out to you with their theme for the homeroom raffle basket and will be collecting donations in November. If you're interested in donating any homemade items to sell in the shop or contribute to the raffle baskets, please reach out! We would love to continue with this tradition and greatly appreciate your help.

If you have any questions or are interested in being on the committee, please click here to email Alicia Kelly.

Getting to know our MUSIC BOOSTERS

Monica Simmons is the Vice President of Music Boosters and is the mom of a first grader at IWA. Monica was the Assistant Director for last year's production of Annie Jr. Her daughter is in Singing Warriors and takes dance lessons.

Growing up, Monica played piano and always loved being creative, whether it was with arts and crafts or making up shows at home. She first became involved in theater in high school and graduated college with a Theater minor.

Monica said, "The arts provide every kind of student an opportunity to flourish. I love that the Music Boosters helps fund field trips to give students exposure to the fantastic arts scene in Cleveland."

Interested in being a part of the Music Boosters? Contact Danielle Brooks at iwamusicboosters@incarnatewordacademy.org.
