Principal's Message

CARRYING ON THE LEGACY

This week we were blessed to celebrate our 2nd annual Sister Rosemarie Burke Legacy Week, and what a week it was! The students had the opportunity to get to know the Sisters in a very intimate way, as they visited the convent. Some of the most impressive rooms (as voiced by the students) were the screened in porch, the “dessert” table in the dining room, and all of the bedrooms! In addition to the tour of the convent, the students visited the Heritage Room and the chapel.

The faculty and staff were treated to various treats throughout the week that represent the countries of origin of the foundress, Jean Chezard de Matel, as well as the Sisters of the Incarnate Word.

On Thursday, IWA past and current families joined our Tour of Sacred Spaces. A special thank you to Sister Margaret Taylor for leading this beautiful tour, and to the Sisters for being a part of the event.

What a perfect way to start the year!

Classroom Highlights

The classrooms were full of learning and fun this week! Kinder Prep celebrated Grandfriends Day with a visit from local author Celena A. Haynes, who read her book called I Know Grandma's Smiling. In Kindergarten, we welcomed Alex G.'s uncle who is a lieutenant with the Parma Fire Department, to share his role as a community helper. In Mrs. Shipley's 4th grade math classes, students completed a "firehouse" room transformation as they solved various math problems around the room. Our 2nd grade students visited Ms. Schram's 4th grade science class to share what they had learned about butterflies. Together, they investigated milkweed plants from our learning garden, which attract butterflies.
