CLASSROOM HIGHLIGHTS

from the desk of Mrs. Congelio

Preparing for Districts

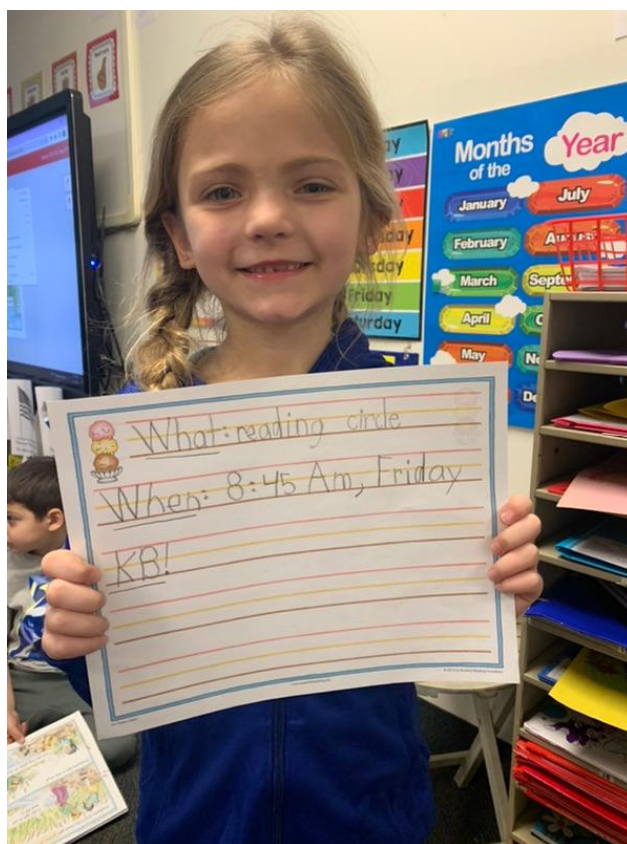

The following seventh grade students have been putting in extra time in preparation for the district science fair competition this spring. Their projects questioned the affect of various music genres with one's mood and heart rate, whether or not acids fizz with all bases, and the effect wing placement has on a plane. Thank you to former IWA parent Mrs. Pafford and current IWA parents Mrs. Biaggi and Mrs. Sauer, for acting as mock judges as they simulated what the students will experience at the district competition. We appreciate your expertise!

Kindergarten Reading Circles

Thank you to Ms. Cajka and her kindergarten class for inviting me to their reading circle! The students gather every Friday to read a new story aloud. They sounded out words such as button and mitten. I think they may have even surprised themselves at how well they were reading. Look out first grade...here they come!

SAVE THE DATE!

Spring Conferences in Kinder Prep through Grade 8 can be scheduled now! These conferences will be held on Thursday, March 9, from 3:00 - 6:00 p.m.

PADUA SOLO and ENSEMBLE

On February 25, the Solo and Ensemble Adjudicated Event at Padua High School was held for 7th and 8th grade band and orchestra students. Students could choose to play either a solo or in an ensemble in front of a judge and receive a rating and comments for their performance. We are so proud of our hard working and talented IWA music students!

Rating Scale: I = Superior, II = Excellent, III = Good, IV = Poor, V = Very Poor.
