Classroom Highlights

from the desk of Mrs. Congelio

Welcome, Baby DeLuca!

With hearts full of love, we joyfully announce the birth of baby DeLuca! Weighing 7 pounds and 20 inches long, Natalie Rose was born on June 27th. Parents, Hannah (IWA third grade teacher) and Emerson DeLuca, are doing well and feeling incredibly blessed. May the Lord bless Natalie with an abundance of grace, love, and faith!

PERFORMING ARTS

We are excited to share that our current IWA Music Boosters is in the process of transforming into the IWA Performing Arts Boosters, supporting our music program and Drama Club!

We are in need of a President, Vice President, and Secretary. The current Music Boosters Treasurer will remain in this position. The current President and Vice President will be moving on as their children graduated from IWA this year. They are more than happy to help guide all new members, and are available to answer any questions you may have regarding their roles.

If you are interested in any of the positions below, please CLICK HERE.

Join our community partner, Upcycle Parts Shop, as they celebrate 11 years of creativity, community, and reuse! The theme is “Things That Fly” and you’ll find them (and the Upcycle fairies!) decked out in wings, capes, and all things whimsical.

This is also the launch to fundraise for their very first Maker’s Marketplace; a new corner of the shop where local makers can sell their work and share their talents with our community.

Proceeds from the celebration will help:

- Bring the Maker’s Marketplace to life
- Support teaching artists leading workshops
- Refresh our shop signage and creative displays

- And cover costs to make the celebration truly magical!

If you're able to donate, sponsor, want to sell in the maker space, or know someone who might want to be part of this joyful mission, please contact Kaliya@upcyclepartsshop.org.
